PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

3. The underlying actions, both sounding in negligence, arise from a motor vehicle accident that occurred on December 5, 2019 as Plaintiff was a pedestrian lawfully upon Bruckner Boulevard in Bronx, NY. The Plaintiff alleges she was struck by the vehicle operated by Defendant, JOSE A. ALEMER, who was in the course and scope of his employment and/or contract with Defendant, UBER TECHNOLOGIES, INC. Plaintiff further alleges the accident was caused, in part, as a result of Defendant, UBER TECHNOLOGIES, INC., negligently designing its rideshare application and requiring its employees and/or independent contractors to violate the Vehicle and Traffic Laws prohibition on use of portable electronic devices while operating a motion vehicle. The Plaintiff now seeks monetary recovery for the personal injuries resulting from the aforementioned motor vehicle accident.

ARGUMENT

6. CPLR §602(a) states, in pertinent part:

When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before a court, the court, upon motion, may order a joint trial of any and all the matters in issue, may order the actions consolidated, and may make such other orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay

- 7. The power to order consolidation rests in the sound discretion of the court and is appropriate where it involves common questions of law and fact. Mattia v. Food Emporium, Inc., 259 A.D.2d 527, 686 N.Y.S.2d 473 (2d Dept. 1999). Consolidation is appropriate where it will "avoid unnecessary duplication of trials [and] save unnecessary costs ... based on same facts." Chinatown Apartments, Inc. v. New York City Transit Authority, 100 A.D.2d 824, 474 N.Y.S.2d 763 (1st Dept. 1984). It is well settled that "the interests of judicial economy" is better served with joint trials where possible. Mideal Homes Corp. v. L & C Concrete Work, Inc., 90 A.D.2d 789, 455 N.Y.S.2d 394 (1st Dept. 1982).
- 8. It follows therefore that when two actions arise from the same motor vehicle accident and are both in the beginning stages of discovery, consolidation is appropriate.

  Progressive Ins. v. Vasquez, 10 A.D.2d 518, 782 N.Y.S.2d 21 (1st Dept. 2004); Paolo v. Eilat, 51

  A.D.2d 585, 378 N.Y.S.2d 770 (2d. Dept. 1976). Indeed, in Paolo, supra, the Second Department held it was an abuse of discretion for the lower court not to consolidate two actions arising from the same motor vehicle accident.

- 9. Here, both actions stem from the same incident that occurred on December 5, 2019, when a motor vehicle owned and operated by Defendants struck Plaintiff who was a lawful pedestrian.
- 10. As a result of the negligence of the Defendants, Plaintiff, SHAARILLE LINZY, suffered serve and permanent personal injuries. Therefore, the culpability of the parties relates to common issues of fact and law that may result in inconsistent verdicts absent consolidation.
- 11. Accordingly, in the interest of judicial economy, the two cases should be consolidated in the Supreme Court, Bronx County, under the same index number 23280/2020E under the following proposed caption:
